Your Travel Choices

The Overseas Passenger Terminal (OPT) is located on the banks of Sydney Cove and located across the road from Circular Quay Train Station. The precinct is ideally located and provides connectivity to Sydney's public transport network and this Travel Access Guide outlines the many travel choices available to you.

Plan ahead

- Planning ahead is key. The Trip Planner on transportnsw.info and public transport apps like Opal Travel, TripView or Citymapper provide real-time service updates, detailed service information, walking and cycling distances and accessibility details.

Find a real-time public transport apps that suits you. Use the Trip Planner to plan your public transport journey.

Prioritise public transport

- Circular Quay and Wynyard Train stations are located within a short walk and bus stops, light rail and ferry services connect to Sydney public transport network.
- Using public transport can be a comfortable alternative to driving; it allows you time to concentrate on something other than being at the wheel and enjoy activities such as reading, relaxing or planning your next holiday.
- Catching public transport helps contribute to your daily physical activity. People who regularly catch public transport get about 25 minutes more physical activity a day, compared to people who drive.

Use the Trip Planner to plan your public transport journey.

Walk or ride your bike for all or some of your journey

- Walking or riding your bike as part of your daily commute is a great way to improve and maintain your physical health and mental well-being, whether you are travelling to OPT for work or as a passenger about to embark on a holiday.
- Handy information about local bike routes and free resources including cycling maps are available on the City of Sydney's website.
- The City also offers free tune ups for bikes, holds courses where you can get your riding confidence up and runs maintenance sessions.

For detailed information about riding download the City of Sydney bike map.

Paying for your public transport fare is easier than ever

Use an Opal Card, contactless card or linked device to access Opal benefits. Remember to use the same card or linked device for all your trips to access benefits.

Benefits include:*

- $2 discount for every transfer between modes (train, ferry, bus or light rail) as part of one journey.
- Weekly travel reward - half price travel after eight paid journeys in a week.
- Daily adult fare capped at $16.10
- Weekly adult fare capped at $50
- 30% discount with weekday off-peak metro/train fares (before 7am, between 9am and 4pm and after 6.30pm).

Visit the Opal website to find out more about off-peak fares for Opal and contactless payments.

* These prices are current, as at May 2022.

About the OPT

The Overseas Passenger Terminal is flanked by the iconic Sydney Opera House on one side and the Sydney Harbour Bridge on the other.

The Overseas Passenger Terminal is a dedicated cruise passenger terminal, where cruise liners arrive and depart right on the harbour near Sydney city centre. It is Sydney's premier location for events and activations, offering direct views of the Sydney Opera House and Harbour.

The Rocks is steeped in history and is a must visit when in Sydney, tourists and locals alike. The area is a neighbourhood of historic laneways in the shadow of Sydney Harbour Bridge. Locals and tourists mingle at the open-air Rocks Markets, purchasing street food and handmade fashions. The area has some of Sydney's oldest pubs and many of the upscale restaurants have harbour views. The Museum of Contemporary Art offers local and international exhibits. Buskers perform along the busy harbourfront promenade. The Rocks is well connected to the Sydney Transport network.

The bridge spans the water in the background, while the Opera House is visible on the left. The terminal is a large, modern building with a curved roof in the foreground. The city skyline is visible in the distance.

The Overseas Passenger Terminal is located on the land of the Gadigal people of the Eora nation. We acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land and pay respect to Elders past and present and emerging.

Public Transport accessible to Overseas Passenger Terminal Precinct

Circular Quay and Wynyard Stations provide train and bus services that connect to most of Sydney's public transport network, there is also a direct connection to Sydney International Airport and Sydney Domestic Airport via the T8 line.

Circular Quay Station is generally less busy and provides T2, T3, T4, T8 and South Coast Intercity train services in either direction via the City Circle line.

Wynyard Station provides T1, T2, T3, T4, T8, T9, South Coast and Central Coast Intercity services. It is approximately a 10-minute walk to the OPT.

Several bus routes service the immediate area with Circular Quay Station and Wynyard Station being a major bus interchanges around both train stations. Generally, the buses stopping at Wynyard Station provide services across the Sydney and Northern Sydney network.

The CBD and Sydney Light Rail will also service the Circular Quay precinct, via George Street. This provides services to Randwick and Kingsford and an alternate option to Central Station. These are services by L2 Randwick to Circular Quay both directions, L3 Juniors Kingsford to Circular Quay in both directions.

Ferry services which operate out of Circular Quay are F1 Manly, F2 Taronga Zoo, F3 Parramatta River, F4 Pymont Bay, F5 Neutral Bay and F6 Mosman Bay. Circular Quay also provides private ferry and fast ferry services to connect to greater Sydney. These provide a scenic public transport option around Sydney Harbour.

The OPT is well-connected to local cycling infrastructure, with nearby dedicated cycleways in each direction. The City of Sydney Cycleways website has a suite of free resources for bike riders in and around the CBD including maps to help you plan your route, ride guides, details of free tune ups for your bikes and courses to get your confidence up.

Planning your bike trip

Transport's Trip Planner has new options to allow you to plan your bike riding route based on your skill level and preferences in three easy steps. Just:

1. Enter your starting point
2. Enter your destination
3. Choose your preferred type of trip based on your skill level or preference.

Easier: Ideal for new cyclists, young riders or those that would prefer an easier route by avoiding hills and busy roads where possible.

Moderate: Best suited to intermediate cyclists who don't mind the occasional hill and are comfortable riding on some roads.

More direct: For experienced cyclists who want to minimise travel time, can handle steeper hills and navigate busy roads.

Planning a mixed mode trip

You can also use the trip planner to plan a mixed trip, using both your bike and public transport in combination. For example, if you want to cycle for the first part of your journey from your home to a train station, then by train onto the office.
