WELCOME TO THE PORT OF NEWCASTLE

Newcastle Harbour is the gateway to the Hunter Region and boasts a vibrant working harbour offering an array of day excursions from city sights and wine tasting to coastal and nature tours. Newcastle is Australia’s second oldest city known as a culinary and artistic hot-spot that is also home to some of the best beaches in the country.

Your ship will berth at Newcastle’s dedicated secure cruise berth, only 75 nautical miles (140kms) north of Sydney in a region abundant in diverse visitor experiences, all within an hour of the port. Newcastle Harbour is complemented by six diverse shore excursion destinations - Newcastle, Port Stephens, Central Coast, Lake Macquarie, Hunter Valley and Maitland/Morpeth.

Cruise ships arriving at the Port of Newcastle dock at the Carrington terminal and a shuttle bus takes passengers on the 10-min drive to Newcastle CBD. For passengers who have booked a shore excursion tour with the cruise line, departure is from the wharf*.

Cruise Welcome Ambassadors will greet and provide information to passengers onboard the shuttle bus and on arrival at Newcastle CBD.

For Newcastle Port parameters please refer to page 18.

Private vehicles are unable to access the Port.*
